

From Herlong with LOVE

8 October, 2009

With just a little consideration by the local staff I will be able to get more than the 6 months of halfway house now planned. 2 men have been given 8 months on shorter sentences in the last few weeks so that wall is beginning to move in my favor.

No new job yet; there has been no sign of hiring at UNICOR other than the promise of interviews that were suppose to start yesterday; however, Yesterday was inspection day so time will tell.

I was paid a lavish 30.48 for September on my 2 jobs; so even that relieves the strain on the budget for necessities.

I have volunteered for another community project, this time in Susanville to start sometime this month. I decided on a goal of 1,000 hours of service and if this job is "big" as stated that will be achieved easily by December when I have requested furlough to visit Phoenix for 5 days.

The case is in limbo until the 10th makes a decision, though I am waking each night now with thoughts of the certiorari for the Supreme Court. NO, I have no sign that I should weaken the challenge to the system, or give any ground on the rule of law.

Thanks to Mr. T I was priveleged to read the Bentson Certiorari petition, which is very bland of challenge as it is authored by lawyers who are members of the courts, and barred from most challenges.

Thanks to Mr. S I was also priveleged to read the Hendrickson petition which is more pointed on the law, being a non lawyer.

What a concept; the people have more integrity to the law than those sworn and paid to faithfully execute law, and office in support of the Constitution.

Yes, I will argue treason against the Constitution as defined by Chief Justice Marshall in 1821.

My health and attitude remain unchanged to better as these little tasks are accomplished and put behind.

3/4 of the book have been mailed for editing and correction, and I am starting on another editing myself as I get copies for that purpose. Yes, it is much cheaper to mail back and forth than to try to copy here. The last section will go in a few days.

I am also starting another series of individual messages similar to a newsletter that may in fact be this series in the future.

The ministry here and my part in it continue to be highly blessed and great things are being revealed, especially to pur Chaplains. I love it when God shows off HIS greatness, glory, and LOVE. So very much is ours for the simple humble childlike asking. Get all your gifts and inheritance... LOVE jc3
