

The simple solution really is simple

You AND ONLY YOU CAN DETERMINE JUST HOW SIMPLE.

There are just a few requirements personally, as a family, as a church, or as a Nation and people.

Love everyone enough to forgive and forget everything that offends you in your person and pride.

LOVE God enough to sacrifice everything about you to HIS glory and praise.

SEE: told you it was easy.

There are no ritual prayers; ritual sayings or rituals of actions that you must follow; for each one you love will be just a little different; and each time you LOVE will be new and wonderful. There are at least as many different ways to LOVE as there are stars in the sky or elements in your DNA (Design NOT Accident).

It is so very simple I give but a few little suggestions I have myself used and am using.

Blessed are the MEEK; so get to your humility and meekness so you are in the right place for glorifying God who is a little above you. Humbly seek and find the ways to be always a glory to HIM for Who He is and what HE has done.

It is a settled fact that you have not and can not be as sorely abused, maligned, persecuted, prosecuted, or blasphemed as HE has been for centuries. So: just give up on your petty self pity and go seek out that one, all of them and find the meek way to apologize, forgive and forget so there remains nothing that can divide but their bad choice, and be willing to sacrifice all of self to overcome all that could possibly divide.

Ask and receive LOVE and forgiveness to destroy all that you may have said or done that hurt or offended another into separation and division.

Knock on that door that has shut you out with the same persistence that God knocked at the door of your stony heart until He was accepted into you and you into HIM to be one in LOVE.

How easy is it for you to give up, in fact buy off every error or insult or prejudice that anyone has ever done or expressed against you while they are not even asking, and blame you for all the troubles of the relationship. That is exactly what God did in Jesus Christ on Calvary; He bought back all the world's errors for all time that separated you from HIM, and made it all easy and comfortable for you to copy HIS work and even do greater works.

When someone has hurt or offended you ; go seek them out and be quick to forgive and forget even if their religion and custom is lying to them about the problem.

God planned and designed us to be ONE with HIM for all of eternity, even our little time spent on earth. He was so willing to sacrifice Himself for you as your only advocate and final sacrifice that He set a perfect example.

Even if your flesh in this world think it is hard or impossible; do it anyway because that then becomes a pure act of faith and trust in HIM and in HIS wonderful immeasurable LOVE.

Destroy every principality and power that would or could divide you from any other follower of christ, and then join together to spread this good news to all the world; first in your own family, then in your association of believers, your church, your community, and the whole nation and world.

All of the silly artificial barriers we call nations and borders, governments and races must be eliminated for us to be one.

Pick the 3 people you have been most offended by, hurt by or insulted by as your first short term goal. Become united in the LOVE of God with them and celebrate all their unique differences that is their DESIGN not ANNOYANCE. Overcome the evil of the worle, even your flesh that will fight against the simple sacrifice of self. That fight from within as the flesh wars against the Spirit GOD must be sacrificed and overcome in that total victory which Jesus has given us.

Make peace where there has been only war, being always willing to surrender your self totally to HIM and them in being or becoming ONE in LOVE. Blessed are the Peacemakers! YES you CAN! For me the battle ground is between my own carnal mind and flesh emotions that keep trying to deceive and trick me into these simple errors.

If it is easier for you, pick a total stranger who you percieve as different or offensive in something they do and make peace with them in the Glory of GOD.

When we realize how inimportant and small this silly place called earth is in HIS magnificent Kingdom we must accept that He gave His greatest sacrifice in LOVE for a very tiny insignificant speck of dust and its wholly sinful corrupt people.

Is there anything that makes your person more important or valuable than His so that you should be exepmt from total and complete surrender in LOVE?

Just do the easy parts; remit all sins aganst you and seek forgiveness for all errors against others whether real oe imagined. Even if you think you were completely correct and they were wrong; overcome the separation with love and celebrate that not too many are just like you.

LOVE is the simple solution and is always easier with practice; YOU have enough to share with the whole world, even your dear neighbor, brother, and friends, even your most devoted enemy.

There is no problem in your life of eternal value that can not be solved or eliminated by forgiveness given and received, and there is no problem in your life of eternal value that has any other solution.

Faith can not work through the grace of God without forgiveness, and the greater YOU become at forgiving and forgetting the closer you will come to living in and being HIS image and likeness in the earth.

ONE and ONLY ONE sin is named as unto death; the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth; Jesus is truth. This means that every error or sin committed against you is of no eternal value and can not lead to death in that relationship of LOVE, God's style.

YOU have in your heart, mind, spirit and strength the capacity to forgive all and forget all, and the express obligation to do so before you even ask HIM for HIS forgiving and forgetting of all.

Jesus made it very plain that we were to forgive without limitations, even 7 times 70 per day for each brother; that is not for everyone but for each one, just like HIS capacity for YOUR forgiveness is even greater than that; and is in truth without measure or number.

When I lay hands on men here for their healing my first question is whom are they angry with; where are they holding a grudge to retain a brother's sin as a curse in the LOVE of the brotherhood. So it is also appropriate to ask you the same question. Who are you angry at, or holding their sins as a curse? And better still as Jesus said; if a brother is angry at you or retaining your sins as a curse, leave your sacrifice at the alter and go to him to settle the matter and then come to pray for your own transgressions against GOD, who is always slow to anger and quick to forgive. ONLY YOU can hold up a barrier to HIS LOVE and forgiveness by possessing unsettled ought with a brother or neighbor. And ONLY YOU can eliminate that barrier to forgiveness, which is the key to the kingdom and eternity with HIM.

Last weekend I wrote 40 pages of letters to family because of unresolved petty little grievances between fathers, sons and daughters. I have spent most of my life as a warrior and now all that matters is peacemaking. Peacemaking can not be done while we carry unresolved transgressions, debts, or sins within our families and Jesus Church.

Yes, it must be first very personal, then to your own family that God has given you or made you from; then to your congregation of believing brothers, the church, the community, and to all the earth.

YES; YOU CAN; HE MADE IT EASY; JUST DO IT!!!
