

4-6-10 ?

Hello Again;

Well, it is Saturday and I am bored already.

The weekends seem to take as long as the whole week preceeding, probably because I do not plan too well and refuse to get involved in the silliness that many use to occupy time. I do on some weekends play Bacci Ball, though not often enough to have a regular partner who is there whenever I want to play.

This whole week required more inside time than necessary so I sincerely hope for good weather and sunshine today so much time can be spent outside instead of trapped indoors. I like to go for casual walks, do some stretching, and just enjoy HIS wonderful creation. Yes; I know snow wind and cold are wonderful parts of HIS creation; I am just too much of a wimp to enjoy them much. 50 mph wind with either blowing dust or snow is not to my liking. Of course if it were required for work I would do it anyway.

We were busy enough at work this week to avoid boredom; a little electrical troubleshooting and repair; a little HVAC work, and my routine sewage system along with the routines of readings and chemical analysis.

We had good services on Tuesday and on Thursday; pastor Alt was here Thursday so I only led a few songs and he gave a good message on having a good name. Tuesday we continued on reading the messages of Paul; Titus this week. That hearing thing really does work; we read the scripture aloud and pause for discussion as any are led to comment or raise questions. Paul sets a really high standard for our conduct in and out of church; every moment of every day. It often challenges me in how he teaches us to treat nonbelievers, and those who refuse the message of Jesus Christ and His great grace.

I Am less than 2 weeks from visiting Phoenix, and it seems the time just goes faster. Seems so short a time ago that I was months away, or even years.

This weekend I will assist one of the men I work with in his lawsuit for more halfway house time and write my own suit to push that onward.

We received glad tidings that the Supreme Court is leaning toward the rule of lenity on the good time credits issue. Congress allowed 54 days (85%) per year of good time; but BOP uses fuzzy math to come up to just 47 days (87.2%). Part of the oral argument before the Supreme Court was on the ambiguity, and also on the 100 Million per year in savings by following Congress. DUH! The timing is beautiful as we argue the ambiguity and arbitrary procedures of the bureau that denies us the benefit that could save congress BILLIONS each year in actually sending us to halfway house for longer periods.

BOP uses the new benefit created by Congress to help us succeed in returning to civilian life to stuff the halfway houses with short sentence people so they can pretend there is no room for us longer term people. A man with a one year sentence gets 6 months in the new policy instead of 40 days in the old one. With 51/2 year sentence I get 6 months; just the same as the old policy; sounds like discrimination to me, and arbitrary denial of benefit; so that is our court argument. My friend has a 12 year sentence, so he is even worse off than me. Somehow the bureau decides that, in this economy a man who has been away from job and family for 4 months needs the same amount of time as one who has been gone 15 or even 20 years. My case of a 65 year old entering the job market for the first time since 1972, after 51 months served, with a felony record needs just the same amount of help to succeed as the 24 year old who has home, wife and job waiting for his return. Make sense out of that and you are ready for federal employment.

It is just one of the latest examples of how inadequate this government is to the needs or rights of the people who empower it.

So; thanks to the Supreme Court and FAMM.com we have a better lenity argument than before and it is in God's perfect timing for my writing this weekend.

I have not figured out a way to get back into the Supreme Court on the Habeas corpus. Comically; the clerk is an absolute bar by rule when all the lower courts ignored the rules and decisions in order to carry on their will.

Praise God for such a beautiful view of the mountains as I sit at this typing machine. It is turning out to be just another gray day; no sun, but no wind yet either so walking may yet be in order, probably after lunch.

Our sea gulls have returned in force; so the orderlies have that job of clearing up the droppings. Last weekend, Wayns, 71 was out scrubbing sidewalks because he was feeding the flying rats his leftovers from chow. Yes, I watch these birds too; just like the crows and hawks. Have not seen the Eagles yet this spring, last summer we had a pair who raised one chick; Goldens, he has about a 6 or 7 foot wingspan and hers about 5. The perch on the outside lights in front of the building and hunt the rabbits in our sagebrush. The redtail Hawks are around all year except when the Eagles show up.

One of my classes is for resume writing, job interviews, and planning for success. I stay very close to God as my best hope of success in all that I do and say.

God bless you all; I am through rambling and on to work to help another man in seeking justice from this babylonian beast system.

Love ya lots

Kingdom Notes

It was April 3, 1988, resurrection Sunday coincided with our best guess at Passover's first day marking the beginning of His Kingdom Age. Yes, it was after sundown that he ate and drank with His disciples to mark HIS coming in HIS Father's Kingdom as He had prophesied just before His betrayal on the evening of the day of preparation.

Actually Passover is the easiest of all days to get right; except for those who argue that the ceremonial law has been done away with; and they have no calendar, feast, or way to measure that time. There is a big difference between fulfilled, and destroyed. One could make the argument that all that law of the Mosaic covenant ended with the divorce of Israel and cursing of Judah in Jeremiah 3; but that is not my purpose.

None of that law, not one jot or tittle has passed away; just the rituals, sacrifices, and curse under that law have been killed off for me by HIS great Grace in love that pardons all my sins and makes me a new citizen of HIS Kingdom by His grace through my faith in HIM and what HE has done that was impossible for me to achieve.

It is so very simple. LOVE says; we must be dead to sin in order to be alive unto God; the awareness of sin; the knowledge of good and evil comes only by the law; and cursing and death is all that law can possibly achieve.

Jesus committed suicide on the day of preparation, just as He had planned from before the foundation of the earth; God the Father killed Jesus the son for my benefit, to purchase my pardon from all sin and shame.

In the old covenant God set before us in prophecy; good and evil, blessing and cursing, life and death; just as He had done for Adam and Eve but HE did not put to them the key to knowledge and the kingdom. After 4000 years of seeing people fail miserably in every trial and circumstance He decided it was enough, and ended those times.

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the fulfilling of the law and the promise of Abraham was the end of that age led by the law as our tutor that was needed to bring us to Christ. From Adam on God's objective was to bring us back to Him. His hope was that we would see our error and repent; when that failed He brought the ministry of Noah and the flood; basically pressed the reset button for righteousness. It did not even last until they were off the ark before we are told Ham sinned, violating God's moral law of Good and evil.

Those times were so bad that God reports in most generations only one man that is counted as righteous because of his faith in believing God. And by the way, if you look at the geneology of Jesus from Adam you will find many generations that are not

Christ of Nazareth in celebration of His finishing the law and beginning the that had not one righteous man in the generation, while in the prophecy God says He will reserve unto Himself 7000 in a generation that have not bowed their knee to baalam. Did you ever wonder when that generation could be? Or how?

Only by HIS great Grace through Faith, and this not of us but is a gift from HIM; a gift not available until He paid the ultimate price to purchase it in His great sacrifice we remember on resurrection Sunday.

On that day, more than 12 of us gathered together to celebrate HIS Kingdom and Righteousness that we had purchase with our filth rags of our sinful nature and body as we sought first HIS Kingdom and righteousness so that HE could add more and more to our lives.

Look at that wonderful day we celebrate as resurrection Sunday every year. Once again this action had to be completed in order that we could rely on the truth of the scriptures, both old and new. The end of the age of law had come; it was over, nailed to that tree so that the new age, in His magnificent Kingdom could be enjoyed by all. Again it was necessary that this happen just this way such that the prophecy was fulfilled, and th curse of the law satisfied, fulfilled, completed and abolished.

Once you seek first and find first and enter into first that Kingdom and righteousness you are the new creature of holiness, righteousness that Jesus described, and then the Apostles instruct you haw to live out the rest of your life from that new beginning that had come three days after the old times ended on the cross.

"IT IS FINISHED" has a wonderful reality with many great benefits.

His sacrifice was finished....

His walk as a mere man, the son of man was finished...

His humanity was finished...

Our sin was finished....

The curse of the law was finished...

Blood sacrifice was finished.....

Darkness was finished.....

Death was finished.....

The law as a tutor was finished... He was lifted up and draws all men to HIM

Satan was finished, and death, Hell and the grave by the time He had taken that

3 day dirt nap for my benefit and for yours so that by HIS great charity and HIS grace and by or through the faith which He authored and Finished in just that 3 years on earth and 3 days in the grave made my future secure.

We there that day covenanted to gether with our risen reigning KING JESUS Christ of Nazareth in celebration of His finishing the law and befinning the Kingdom age of love, LOVE, LOVE.

All those things that are impossible for man by and through the law age of the old covenant of Mosaic traditions, regulations, and rituals are and always were easy and light for God, especially in and through Jesus establishing the Kingdom age as the destruction of the law age and restoring us to the age of promise as Abraham's sons, the children of God by His grace received through our faith in Jesus and all that He has done.

HE FINISHED the age of separation that was by the law showing us our sin and desperate need for HIS perfect sacrifice to take away the sins of the world once for all. If we keep on seeking to be subject to the law we reestablish sin in our own lives and would require Him to be crucified again; but that is impossible, even for HIM. So returning to law, and its rituals is our own eternal suicide, and brings about our death to Christ in order to worship the creation and not the creator, Jesus the Son, Jesus the Holy Spirit and Jesus the Father of all; these 3 are one.

Days are created things...

Sabbath was created for man, not man for the sabbath...

Calendars are just graven images of the created days...

Trees, even crosses are just created things and graven images blaspheming God, the father, son, and holy Ghost.

He began the new age of the Gospel of Jesus Christ here on the earth as written by the Apostles. When He says new it means the old is past, dead and gone; the old age of separation is past dead and gone, unless you choose to return to your old filthy rags of sinful flesh and abandon the new creature of righteousness in Jesus Christ our LORD.

ON resurrection Sunday He declared His own Mastery of all that is created both in Heaven and in earth; "THIS DAY is all power in heaven and earth given unto me"; He was given the name far above all the heavens; ~~HE IS LORD OF ALL~~. Then that same evening, which could be argued as the second day, he joined the 2 at Emmaus in dinner, both eating and drinking, and then the 11 gathered at Peter's house, or maybe 10 because Thomas was absent. He both ate and drank, and repeated the eating and drinking on other occasions as He revealed Himself to them up to the day of Ascension.

Our Resurrection celebration likewise honors and acknowledges HIM as the RISEN LORD, now lifted above all creation for drawing us to HIM in HIS grace through Faith in HIM as the risen reigning LORD, KING and Priest.

There is no other name under heaven by which men may be saved; it was impossible for the law to save and He generously cured that impossibility. Praise God!

Just 7 weeks later, again on the first day of the week, KING JESUS sent HIS own Spirit of Truth, the HOLY Ghost and many more great things that were totally and completely impossible in the law age. It further proves that that age was over, and the new age of Jesus Christs loving Gospel was in force and effect throughout the earth as HE established dominion and power over men, even their ears and tongues. Paul tells us that control of the tongue is control of the whole body; and Jesus controls our tongues in our own pentecost revelation whenever we get to that point of submission, wholly releasing that control. The second that we fully submit to HIS control of even our tongues, we will be rewarded with confirmation of HIS word and Faith being established in our ears.

120 tongues and many thousands of ears were instantly and completely controlled on that day by the sound of the rushing mighty wind, and the speaking and hearing of tongues as the fire of the spirit landed and controlled 120 tongues to speak.

This was whole body surrender to the KING and Kingdom of righteousness; dead to all the past, and now made wholly alive unto Jesus. As Jesus said; "few are they who find it for it makes a very straight and narrow path to and for HIM. Only the path of personal humility in total surrender will get you into this Kingdom of God's magnificent Grace through faith in Jesus as the only one who ever could have done this otherwise impossible task of ending the age of Law in starting the age of grace through faith that is in simple fact HIS KINGDOM AND RIGHTEOUSNESS we are to seek and find first before other things are added. He will not give you tasks to perform until HE has first given you the power and ability to succeed easily and comfortably by HIS own Spirit of truth.

How much of ALL THINGS have you been taught by the spirit of TRUTH; Jesus is truth? If it is not enough to overwhelm you at HIS greatness as a teacher, you need a larger dose of surrender. Have you truly surrendered all things to HIM? He is LORD of the Sabath. Have you surrendered your creation worship to HIM, so that HE has control of even your tongue?

Is your God too small? Is he shut up in a book so that He no longer speaks or teaches you great things?

Paul calls Prophecy one of the greater gifts, unless you interpret the tongues you or others may speak. Seems to me that interpretation of tongues and prophecy may be the same thing in two expressions; for as God speaks by the Spirit in tongues out your mouth and gives you the interpretation also it is actually in truth and righteousness prophecy.

There in no old law scripture that can teach us the wonderful Kingdom of Jesus now in this earth; the only way to get it is by the teaching of the Holy Ghost, the third person of the living God. Nothing else can suffice, nor will.
